

Easy ordering for your employees, controlled costs for your company, less stress for you!!!

As part of our limited time offer to your company, no minimum ordering requirements are made and no contract signing is required. We will work with your IT department to set up the appropriate Internet/data exchange methods free of charge! All you ultimately will need to do is provide us, for example, with a purchase order number and publicize the availability of this new program with your appropriate personnel.

Corporate Benefits

- 1st in Flowers!® Corporate Gifting accounts are a convenient way to build customer, vendor and associate loyalty and to further motivate current employees or show prospective employees the caring and quality of life that exists at your company. We have convenient ordering, customized billing and we assign to your company a personal, 1st in Flowers!® gifting consultant.
- Easy Ordering by Internet, data exchange, phone or fax, as your company may desire. For large standardized orders, such as client or customer “thank you’s,” the order information can be submitted by your company using a spreadsheet or an ASCII delimited text file or other agreeable data interchange format.
- Ordered gifts can be delivered domestic US or international!
- Discounts - volume discount calculations include your company’s orders, as well as those of your employees.
- Customized Billing – a 1st in Flowers!® Corporate Gifting account lets your company group purchases by different cost centers or to summarize your purchases, etc. Billing to your company is normally done on a monthly basis payable within no later than 30 days.
- Personal Gifting Consultant – When you open your Corporate Gifting account, you will be assigned a “gifting consultant” to help you with any questions or problems you may have.
- “We Remember” Service – Never forget another important date (anniversary, birthday, employee hiring date, establishment of a business relationship, etc.) with your company’s special people. We will automatically send something you have selected or will send a reminder so you won’t forget or a mixture of both, as your company may desire.
- Discounts for your employees - When you implement a 1st in Flowers!® direct ordering program for your employees, in addition to providing them with a benefit, their personal orders will also be credited to your company's total order volume, helping you achieve higher discounts under our Corporate Gifting program.
- No Sales Tax – Unless your order is being delivered to the state of Louisiana, we currently do not charge for sales tax. You get increased savings on top of our great discounts!

1st in Flowers!® Corporate Gifting Program provides your company with the easy, cost-controlled, discounted ordering of flowers, floral arrangements and many other types of gifts. Whether your Sales Department needs to send gifts to the company’s customers, suppliers, or other associates, or your Human Resource Department needs to send gifts to the company’s most valued employees, or prospective employees, our Corporate Gifting Program can help. Purchasing can be set up for your company through the world-wide web, with appropriate data exchange protocols, or a combination of the two depending on your needs.

1st in Flowers!® has been in the retail florist /gifting business for over 30 years and our internet operations began in 1995. Our vast experience has taught us many things, including which local florists and vendors will deliver the best quality and value, what products to offer our customers that will ensure their satisfaction, and how to adapt and respond to customers’ changing needs. A commitment to customer service is our top priority. With 1st in Flowers!® you are dealing with the very best Internet flower ordering service!

- Easy Ordering - Over the Internet, by phone, or even integrating our catalog into your purchasing systems.
- Customized Billing - Broken down by transaction, individual, department, or in any other way your accounting department needs.
- Save Time and Money - Convenient one stop purchasing for your employees, plus a volume discount and no sales tax (see middle panel for details) adds up to increased productivity and cost savings compared to using the phone book or surfing the web.
